To Mr. Fierce Tree,

You're a real all around athlete! You're a superstar in football, basketball (if you hadn't quit) baseball, chess, sewer polo, tiddly winks, etc. You walk around school like you own it, and its all because of me that you got to be president! I can never forgive your comments about me that you made in my annual! You're the only pinko, puffy, faggy, fairyski, skint in this school who can give away pencils. When you get your scholarship at a top university and you drive around in your continental please remember me, because I'll still be in the 8th grade trying to pass Math (algebra)! Anyways, I'll see you at the big school next year (M.C.H.S.) and maybe you'll be lucky enough to have some classes with me! Don't get into trouble with anybody of the opposite sex over the summer.

biggest experts
in the field now.
You're straight up now.
You're not a dummy
An 82, and you're still

Stay the light you are.
Good luck in the future.
